

The image shows a ruler template for a math activity. It consists of six vertical lines, each starting with a circle and a plus sign at the top. These lines are spaced evenly across the page. Between each pair of vertical lines, there is a dashed line. The dashed lines are also spaced evenly, creating a series of vertical columns. The template is designed to be used for creating a ruler or for a similar activity.