Directions:

- Partner A:
  - Use 16–24 tiles to build a rectangle. Don't let your partner see it!
  - Describe it to your partner.
- Partner B: Build the rectangle your partner describes to you.
- Place the 2 rectangles next to each other. Discuss how the rectangles are alike and different.
- Switch roles and repeat.

Directions:

- Partner A:
  - Use 16–24 tiles to build a rectangle. Don't let your partner see it!
  - Describe it to your partner.
- Partner B: Build the rectangle your partner describes to you.
- Place the 2 rectangles next to each other. Discuss how the rectangles are alike and different.
- Switch roles and repeat.

Directions:

- Partner A:
  - Use 16–24 tiles to build a rectangle. Don't let your partner see it!
  - Describe it to your partner.
- Partner B: Build the rectangle your partner describes to you.
- Place the 2 rectangles next to each other. Discuss how the rectangles are alike and different.
- Switch roles and repeat.

